

University of Toronto Mississauga Department of Recreation, Athletics & Wellness

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
6 June 2018

UTM welcomes five new Eagles to the nest for the 2018-19 season

Mississauga, ON - The UTM Varsity Eagles is pleased to announce the signing of five new recruits to the growing Eagles family for the 2018-19 season. The new recruits attended UTM's Signing Day on June 5th, joined by family, friends, coaches, and Eagles fans, excited to look ahead at the upcoming season and to bring new energy to the teams.

Beyonce Hosang - From Brampton ON, the 5'10 forward stands strong in the paint. Hosang is a force the Women's basketball team is excited about acquiring this coming season. Hosang will be graduating from St. Edmund Campion Catholic Secondary School in June and will major in Humanities.

Janella Viado - From Milton ON, the 5'5 guard's ball handling and strong court awareness will be key assets to the Women's Varsity basketball team next season. Viado graduates from Jean Vanier Catholic Secondary School in June and will major in Forensic Psychology.

Andreas Jankovic - A native to Mississauga ON, the 6'9 centre will bring great size to the frontcourt of the Men's Basketball Team. After graduating from Kalaheo High School (Kailua, Hawaii), Andreas attended junior college in Los Angeles and has brother currently playing professional basketball in Serbia. Jankovic will major in Humanities.

Milan Acimovic - Transferring from Algoma University, Acimovic is eager to be a member of the Eagles family, where he will major in Psychology. Hailing from Toronto ON, the 6'5 forward will add perimeter shooting to the team's offensive repertoire, possessing both strong shooting ability and defensive versatility.

Scott Ford - Majoring in Forensic Science, Ford brings great shooting and perimeter defense to support the Men's basketball team in the upcoming season. From Etobicoke ON, the 6'1 guard believes that UTM is the right fit for his undergraduate years as a student-athlete, stating, "I met my teammates and coaches, and knew UTM was home for me."

The UTM coaching staff is excited for the new energy and the growth of their teams next year. Nkosi Adams, Head Coach of the Men's Basketball team says, "We are looking forward to our second season in the OCAA! We feel that last year was a great learning experience for the coaches and players and we are ready to hit the ground running for the upcoming season!" Salee Johnson-Edwards, Head Coach for the Women's Basketball team, echoed the same sentiments, saying "Beyonce and Janella will bring a positive energy to our Women's team. We are excited to bring talented student-athletes into the UTM Eagles family and are excited about growing this upcoming season."

Hosang, Viado, Jankovic, Acimovic and Ford will be joining their UTM Varsity teams this August 15th as all Varsity teams look to kick-off pre-season training.

-END-