FAQ

Do I get to select a room/roommate?
At the University of Toronto Mississauga campus we place first year applicants in Academic Learning Communities, based on program of study. Therefore, first year undergraduates will not have the ability to choose roommates or room preferences.

I don’t like my room style. Can I switch?
No. If a student chooses to decline their offer they will not receive a refund and their application will be cancelled.

I identify as transgender. What accommodation options and support do you provide?
Trans* - an umbrella term used to describe individuals who, to varying degrees, do not conform to what society usually defines as a man or a woman.

Diversity is an important part of the cultural landscape at UTM, and we consider gender diversity to be an important aspect of this. We believe that students have a right to live in a housing arrangement that is inclusive of their gender identity. In the interest of creating such an equitable and inclusive community, the Department of Student Housing & Residence Life is happy to offer housing accommodations to those students who identify as trans, or for any students who feel that their gender identity or gender expression is not represented in the traditional male and female housing arrangements that are typical of most campuses.

If you identify as trans and would like to initiate a conversation with a housing professional regarding what you see as your specific needs and interests in terms of your housing arrangement please complete the following form.

FAQ

I have medical or accessibility needs that require a particular room style or a modification to my space. What should I do?
You are more than welcome to still aim to be within the first 100 applicants. However, we will work with you individually to best accommodate your needs. Please submit the Medical Accommodation Request form (http://utm.utoronto.ca/housing/applying/forms-documents) by the Friday, March 18, 2016 deadline. If you submit this form after the deadline, housing options may be limited and we may not be able to accommodate all requests.

If I don’t get the room style I want, can I get a refund of my application fee?
Please see our cancellation policy above. The application fee is entirely non-refundable and non-transferable.

If I do not receive any of the Residence Guarantees, can I get a refund of my application fee?
The application fee is entirely non-refundable and non-transferable.

I am on the waitlist. When will I get an offer of residence?
That depends on if/when students cancel their offers of residence. You receive a weekly waitlist update email throughout the summer and school year.
I want to cancel my application/offer. Will I get my money back?

It depends on the date that a student cancels and what stage of the application/offer process they are in. For first year residents, the deadline to withdraw without being held financially responsible for their room is Thursday, July 27, 2017. Please read below for details.

Cancellation Prior to Occupancy
If the Resident wishes to cancel this Agreement at least one-month (30 days) before the first date of occupancy, s/he must submit a request in writing by registered mail, signed fax or in person using the Cancellation-Withdrawal Form found at www.utm.utoronto.ca/housing (Current Residents - Forms & Documents) to the department of Student Housing & Residence Life. Upon receipt of the Cancellation-Withdrawal Form, the Resident's assigned space is returned to the pool of available spaces for re-assignment. Application fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Early Withdrawal from Tenancy by Resident
Should the Resident voluntarily withdraw from Residence within 30 days prior to the occupancy start date, or during his/her occupancy, s/he must submit a request in writing by registered mail, signed fax or in person using the Cancellation-Withdrawal Form found at www.utm.utoronto.ca/housing (Current Residents - Forms & Documents) to the department of Student Housing & Residence Life at least two weeks (10 business days) prior to the desired date of withdrawal. Upon receipt of the subsequent completed Check Out Form, the Resident's assigned space is returned to the pool of available spaces for re-assignment.

Continuing Liability After Withdrawal
Should the Resident voluntarily withdraw from residence within 30 days of the first day of occupancy, or during his/her occupancy, the actual date of Agreement termination will be defined as the date at which a new suitable occupant has been secured by the department of Student Housing & Residence Life for the vacancy for the remainder of the period of the Occupancy Agreement. Until such time, the Resident will be held financially responsible to the full terms of this Agreement accordingly:

The Resident will be required to pay the entire Housing Fee, as stated in Section 7.5 until a new occupant is secured; Application fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.
