

Tufts University
Department of Romance Languages
Olin Center
180 Packard Ave.
Medford, MA 02155

Coordinator/Full-time Lecturer in Italian Language

The Department of Romance Languages at Tufts University announces an opening for a non-tenure track, renewable appointment of Coordinator/Full-time Lecturer in Italian Language to begin September 1, 2010. Doctoral degree in Italian preferred, with native or near-native proficiency in Italian. Proven excellence in teaching Italian language at all levels (1st-6th semester college).

Administrative experience in organizing and staffing multi-level language courses with part-time and full-time faculty; knowledge of foreign language teaching methodologies, including technology-related pedagogy; expertise in curriculum development and assessment. Familiarity with undergraduate advising and study abroad opportunities in Italy.

Tufts University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. We are committed to increasing the diversity of our faculty. Members of underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

Send letter of application with current CV and three letters of recommendation to Professor E. T. Howe, Interim Chair, Department of Romance Languages, Tufts University. Examination of applications will begin on December 15, 2009, and will continue until the position is filled.