Volunteer Opportunity – University of Toronto Tri-Campus League
Head Coach, Men’s Flag Football
CLASSIFICATION: Volunteer Contract
COMPENSATION: T4A Honorarium Payment
LOCATION: University of Toronto - Mississauga Campus

Position Description
The University of Toronto Mississauga is seeking a Coach for the U of T Tri-Campus League’s Men’s Flag Football team. The Tri-Campus League operates out of the St. George Campus and aims to provide a heightened level of Intramural sport experience within a recreational sport environment. The goal of the program is to advance the athletic sport skills and ability of UTM students, led by trained coaching staff, while promoting students' wellbeing. The successful candidate will lead teams through one practice per week and attend all scheduled games throughout the season (6 games), between the three UofT campuses, in addition to maintaining open and ongoing communicating with their team throughout the year. The successful candidate will be a proven leader, motivator, and coach, committed to the development of our student athletes both on the field and in the classroom.
