The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from racialized persons / persons of colour, women, Indigenous / Aboriginal People of North America, persons with disabilities, LGBTQ persons, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas.

Deadline: Tuesday April 30, 2019

Interview Availability: May 2-10, 2019 (applicant will be notified in advance)

Number of Positions: 3

Rate of Pay: $18.00

Position Start Date: Mandatory Camp U of T Training dates: June 24 – 28, 2019 (full attendance, required)
Camp starts: July 8, 2019

Position End Date: July 19, 2019

Number of Hours per Week: 40 hours per week, 8:30am-4:30pm, Monday - Friday

Classification: Non-Union Casual

Summary: Sci-Biz Camp is recruiting Instructors. We are looking for engaging, energetic and creative individuals. The camp instructors are responsible for providing children and youth aged 12 to 14 a positive, fun and safe camp experience. The Sci-Biz Camp Instructor will be instrumental in delivering a high quality program that fosters skill development, team work and critical thinking:

Camp Instructor positions available:
- SciBiz Instructors
  - Chemistry (1 vacancy)
  - Physics (1 vacancy)
  - Earth Science (1 vacancy)

Duties: Camp Instructors duties include:
- Full attendance and participation in camp training (June 24th – 28th)
- Direct supervision of a group of 8 children every day
- Works with Camp Director and Assistant Camp Directors, and Lab Coordinators to plan camp programs and special outings
- Creates lesson plans and teaches lessons based on program curriculum
- Delivers high quality camp programs that are fun and age-appropriate, including preparing and clean up
- Participates in camp programs and acts as a positive role model for the children and youth
- Assists in the inclusion of children with disabilities into the camp program
- Builds a rapport with the children and youth and manages group behavior to ensure safety
- Maintain camper attendance
- Responds to first aid situation and acts in accordance with level of training
- Communicate with parents/guardians and colleagues regularly
- Ability to deal with sensitive and confidential situations professionally
SCI-BIZ CAMP INSTRUCTORS

Qualifications and Experience:

Education:
Two years or more of post secondary education is preferred.

Experience:
- Strong understanding of the respective topic (chemistry, physics, earth science)
- Previous experience working at a day camp, an asset
- Strong interpersonal and conflict resolution skills
- Previous experience working in a chemistry/physics/earth sciences lab is an asset
- Previous experience teaching or tutoring chemistry/physics/earth sciences is an asset
- Business or Management knowledge and understanding is an asset
- For earth science instructors
  - completed ERS 202 and ERS 203
  - comfortable identifying rocks and minerals
  - able to investigate and explain earth science processes

Certifications:
- Current Standard First aid and CPR certification (by start date)
- Employment conditional upon receipt of a Criminal Records Search, Vulnerable Sector Screening

Method of Application:

Deadline to Apply: Tuesday April 30, 2019

Please send your resume, and cover letter to:
[link]

We thank all applicants for their interest in the positions; however only those applicants selected for further consideration will be contacted.

Contact Information:

Vivienne Luk
Assistant Professor, Teach Stream
[link]

University of Toronto Mississauga – Department of Chemical and Physical Sciences
3359 Mississauga Road
Mississauga, ON L5L 1C6