Volunteer Opportunity – Tri-Campus League

Assistant Coach, Women's Basketball

CLASSIFICATION: Volunteer

COMPENSATION: T4A Honorarium Payment

LOCATION: University of Toronto - Mississauga Campus

Description

The University of Toronto Mississauga is seeking a volunteer Assistant Coach for the Tri-Campus Women's Basketball Team. The Tri-Campus League operates out of the St. George Campus and is the highest level of sport competition within the University of Toronto. The goal of the program is to advance the athletic and skill ability of UTM students, led by trained coaching staff, with the potential development in the sport. The Assistant Coach will support the Head Coach through one practice per week and attend all scheduled games throughout the season (up to 9 total), between the three UofT campuses, in addition to maintaining open and ongoing communicating with their team throughout the year. The volunteer will be a proven leader, motivator, and coach, committed to the development of our student athletes both on the court and in the classroom. The University of Toronto requires all those intending to be present on our three campuses, or on premises owned or operated by the university, to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19".
