

EARLY RAVES FOR GOODNIGHT DESDEMONA!

Ontario Arts Review

“THEATRE ERINDALE’S innovative rendering of the story is directed by Daniel Levinson in what is a most creative and re-focused progression ... sexy, vulgar, very contemporary and overall – funny! ... [The] extremely competent cast ... [performs] with a delicious tongue-in-cheek demeanour.... pratfalls are epidemic ... The fight scenes ... are visually spellbinding ... Split-second timing ... Farce that never crossed the line into heavy-handed ham.... Might be in our TOP TEN 2012 list eleven months hence!”

THE MEDIUM
THE VOICE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO MISSISSAUGA

Even star-crossed lovers can get sick of each other (Brenna Stewart and Adam Cresswell). JIM SMAGATA/PHOTO

Hugely entertaining, often hilarious ... You’re bound to leave the theatre not only laughing, but also with a few new ideas to ponder.... Not afraid to go over the top ... Often resembles a madcap 80s teen movie....

A big part of why the play’s more outlandish moments work so well ... is the contribution of the cast. All five leads ... prove to be multitalented. Not only must they master the Shakespearean language, they must also tackle comedy, sword fighting, physical stunts, singing, and dancing.... The professionalism is clear.... The enthusiastic crowd ... laughed and cheered along with the play’s escapades ...

ONLY FIVE MORE PERFORMANCES! MUST CLOSE SUNDAY JANUARY 29TH!

905-569-4369; WWW.THEATREERINDALE.COM