

Guidance Counsellor Day uoft.me/utmcounsellors

Thursday, May 11, 2023 8:30am – 2:00pm

Overview:

As one of the top influencers in the decision-making process for senior students intending to undertake postsecondary studies, we would like to provide you with the opportunity to experience and learn more about the University of Toronto Mississauga at our Guidance Counsellor Day!

Learn more about

U of T Mississauga, get admissions updates and attend a variety of engaging sessions while networking with your peers.

Questions:

Tara Fader Manager, Student Recruitment Events & Outreach tara.fader@utoronto.ca

AGENDA

8:45am Check-in & Refreshments/Light Breakfast IB Lobby

260 Division Barris I Assistant Director, Student Recruitment 5am Institute for the Study of University Pedagogy (ISUP) 260 Mark Baaw-Hara I Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, Institute for the Study of University Pedagogy Sarah Seeley I Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream and Associate Director, Curriculum, Institute for the Study of University Pedagogy In this session, we will discuss one of our courses, ISP100: Writing for University and Beyond, in terms of its uniqueness within Canadian higher education. For example, we will discuss our pedagogical approach, the applicability of the course material across the curriculum, and the cohort building capabilities of this course that is capped at 25 students per section. 15am Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion - Student Recruitment and Admissions The session will provide information about what students from underrepresented and underserved groups need to thrive at UTM. By asking current students why they chose UTM, we can learn about the factors that prospective students consider as they explore their postsecondary options. We will also discuss the STEM Scholars Program, which aims to increase diversity among future leaders in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM). 25am Break 25am Game Studies Courses in English & Drama Michele Kraus I Associate Registrar, Academic Standards, Advising and Financia IAd, Office of the Registrar Things have changed a little since the last time you were here! Our students' well-being continues to be our top priority, wherever they are. Learn about the tools and strategies for high school students and other tangible assets – like our Careers by Major and Program Plans – to guide s	ID LODDy
 Mark Blaaw-Har Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, Institute for the Study of University Pedagogy Sarah Seeley I Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream and Associate Director, Curriculum, Institute for the Study of University Pedagogy In this session, we will discuss one of our courses, ISP100: Writing for University and Beyond, in terms of its uniqueness within Canadian higher education. For example, we will discuss our pedagogical approach, the applicability of the course material across the curriculum, and the cohort building capabilities of this course that is capped at 25 students per section. Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion - Student Perspectives on Access Kwame Olko I Diversity Student Recultment and Admissions Office, Student Recruitment and Admissions Office, Student Sector and Dure propriets and underserved groups need to thrive at UTM. By asking current students why they chose UTM, we can learn about the factors that prospective students consider as they explore their postsecondary options. We will also discuss the STEM Scholars Program, which aims to increase diversity among future leaders in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM). Break Admissions & Academic Advising Lawren Bynn I. Manager, Admission, Student Recultment and Admissions Michelle Kraus I Associate Registrar. Reademic Standards, Advising and Financial Ad, Office of the Registrar Things have changed a little since the last time you were here! Our students' well-being continues to be our top priority, wherever they are. Learn about the tools and strategies for high school students and other tangible assets – like our Careers by Major and Program Plans – to guide students towards a successful academic career. Game Studies Courses in English & Drama Michelle Krau I Assistant Pofessor, Teaching Stream, Ins	9am IB 260	-
 University and Beyond, in terms of its uniqueness within Canadian higher education. For example, we will discuss our pedagogical approach, the applicability of the course material across the curriculum, and the cohort building capabilities of this course that is capped at 25 students per section. Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion - Student Perspectives on Access Kwame Diko I Diversity Student Recruitment and Admissions Officer, Student Recruitment and Admissions The session will provide information about what students from underrepresented and underserved groups need to thrive at UTM. By asking current students why they chose UTM, we can learn about the factors that prospective students consider as they explore their postsecondary options. We will also discuss the STEM Scholars Program, which aims to increase diversity among future leaders in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM). Break Methele Kraus LAssociate Registrar, Rademic Standards, Advising and Financial Aid, Office of the Registrar Things have changed a little since the last time you were here! Our students' well-being continues to be our top priority, wherever they are. Learn about the tools and strategies for high school students and other tangible assets – like our Careers by Major and Program Plans – to guide students towards a successful academic career. Game Studies Courses in English & Drama Ohris J. Young Head, Collections & Digital Scholarship, UTM Library Lawrence Switzy (Faculty Mesociate Char), fagitsh & Drama Methel Kikan Hinor in gaming, these courses examine the deep history and extraordinary diversity of interactive storytelling. Gain a first-hand experience and insight into the teachings and learnings of this new minor. Diptional Campus Tour (approx. 45 minutes) Interested in taking a campus tour? Join one of our Student Ambassadors to 	9:15am IB 260	Mark Blaauw-Hara Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, Institute for the Study of University Pedagogy Sarah Seeley Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream and Associate Director, Curriculum, Institute for the Study of
 260 Kwame Dike I Diversity Student Recruitment and Admissions Officer, Student Recruitment and Admissions Officer, Student Recruitment and Admissions Officer, Student Recruitment and Admissions of the session will provide information about what students from underrepresented and underserved groups need to thrive at UTM. By asking current students why they chose UTM, we can learn about the factors that prospective students consider as they explore their postsecondary options. We will also discuss the STEM Scholars Program, which aims to increase diversity among future leaders in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM). and admissions and interactive story and program Plans – to guide students towards a successful academic career. and assistant Professor. Feaching Stream, Institute of Communications, Culture, Information and technology. New to UTM, a minor in gaming, these courses examine the		University and Beyond, in terms of its uniqueness within Canadian higher education. For example, we will discuss our pedagogical approach, the applicability of the course material across the curriculum, and the cohort
 25am Admissions & Academic Advising Lauren Glynn I Manager, Admissions, Student Recruitment and Admissions Michelle Kraus I Associate Registrar, Academic Standards, Advising and Financial Aid, Office of the Registrar Things have changed a little since the last time you were here! Our students' well-being continues to be our top priority, wherever they are. Learn about the tools and strategies for high school students and other tangible assets — like our Careers by Major and Program Plans — to guide students towards a successful academic career. Game Studies Courses in English & Drama Chris J. Young I Head, Collections & Digital Scholarship, UTM Library Lawrence Switzky I Faculty (Associate Chair), English & Drama Michael Nixon I Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, Institute of Communications, Culture, Information and Technology New to UTM, a minor in gaming, these courses examine the deep history and extraordinary diversity of interactive storytelling. Gain a first-hand experience and insight into the teachings and learnings of this new minor. Lunch Lobby Lobby 	9:45am IB 260	Kwame Diko I Diversity Student Recruitment and Admissions Officer, Student Recruitment and Admissions The session will provide information about what students from underrepresented and underserved groups need to thrive at UTM. By asking current students why they chose UTM, we can learn about the factors that prospective students consider as they explore their postsecondary options. We will also discuss the STEM Scholars Program, which aims to increase diversity among future leaders in science, technology, engineering,
 260 Lauren Glynn I Manager, Admissions, Student Recruitment and Admissions Michelle Kraus I Associate Registrar, Academic Standards, Advising and Financial Aid, Office of the Registrar Things have changed a little since the last time you were here! Our students' well-being continues to be our top priority, wherever they are. Learn about the tools and strategies for high school students and other tangible assets – like our Careers by Major and Program Plans – to guide students towards a successful academic career. 30am 260 Chris J. Young I Head, Collections & Digital Scholarship, UTM Library Lawrence Switzky I Faculty (Associate Chair), English & Drama Michael Nixon I Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, Institute of Communications, Culture, Information and Technology New to UTM, a minor in gaming, these courses examine the deep history and extraordinary diversity of interactive storytelling. Gain a first-hand experience and insight into the teachings and learnings of this new minor. pm Lobby Dptional Campus Tour (approx. 45 minutes) Lobby 	10:15am	Break
 Chris J. Young I Head, Collections & Digital Scholarship, UTM Library Lawrence Switzky I Faculty (Associate Chair), English & Drama Michael Nixon I Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, Institute of Communications, Culture, Information and Technology New to UTM, a minor in gaming, these courses examine the deep history and extraordinary diversity of interactive storytelling. Gain a first-hand experience and insight into the teachings and learnings of this new minor. pm Lobby Cptional Campus Tour (approx. 45 minutes) Interested in taking a campus tour? Join one of our Student Ambassadors to 	10:25am IB 260	Lauren Glynn I Manager, Admissions, Student Recruitment and Admissions Michelle Kraus I Associate Registrar, Academic Standards, Advising and Financial Aid, Office of the Registrar Things have changed a little since the last time you were here! Our students' well-being continues to be our top priority, wherever they are. Learn about the tools and strategies for high school students and other tangible assets — like our Careers by Major and Program Plans — to guide students towards a
Lobby Optional Campus Tour (approx. 45 minutes) Lobby Interested in taking a campus tour? Join one of our Student Ambassadors to	11:30am IB 260	 Chris J. Young Head, Collections & Digital Scholarship, UTM Library Lawrence Switzky Faculty (Associate Chair), English & Drama Michael Nixon Assistant Professor, Teaching Stream, Institute of Communications, Culture, Information and Technology New to UTM, a minor in gaming, these courses examine the deep history and extraordinary diversity of interactive storytelling. Gain a first-hand experience
Lobby Interested in taking a campus tour? Join one of our Student Ambassadors to	12pm IB Lobby	Lunch
	1:15pm IB Lobby	Interested in taking a campus tour? Join one of our Student Ambassadors to