PRANDIUM 2012-2013

The UTM Department of Historical Studies and the Historical Studies Students Society are excited to announce the 2012-2013 launch of Prandium: A Historical Studies UTM Lunchtime Seminar Series. Please join us for lunch and thought provoking interactive presentations by our award-winning graduate speakers.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2012
Meaghan Marian: Fever Dreams: Febrile Disease and the Foundation of Hong Kong.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2012
Eileen Kim: ‘She shall have it [only] for the term of her life...’ Customary Spousal Provisions, Testamentary Bequests, and the Conjugal Relationship in London Hustings Court Records, 1350-1485.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2012
Rami Tanous: Dominion and Creed: Reinterpreting the Conversion of Mesopotamian Christians to Islam in the Mid-Eighth Century.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 2013
Erin Vearncombe: Connecting Threads: Clothing and Identity in the Gospel of Mark.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2013
Nicole Daniel: Blame it on the Reader: Ovid’s Tristia 2 and the Corruption of Reading.

TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 2013

All talks will be held from 12-1PM in room 143 NE, North Building, UTM. We look forward to seeing you!

Enquiries about Prandium may be directed to Dr. Lisa Trentin, lisa.trentin@utoronto.ca.