JOB DESCRIPTION & QUALIFICATIONS

Working closely with the Residence Counsellor, the Mental Health Programming & Events Assistant will work to promote student wellness in residence by organizing a number of events and programs throughout the year that aim to decrease stigma and increase knowledge of mental health issues and resources for residence students. Examples of these events and programs include: coordinating Mental Wellness Week in October; partnering with campus and community organizations to develop and deliver small to large-scale outreach initiatives (e.g., lunch n’learns, workshops, displays) that provide opportunities for students to learn about resources and topics in mental health; partnering with campus partners to promote 5 Ways to Wellbeing (5W2W) initiatives; developing and implementing a communications and social media strategy to engage with students and promote mental wellness events. The Mental Health Programming & Events Assistant will also have the opportunity to research best practices and develop new events and programs to facilitate in residence.

RESPONSIBILITIES:
- Provide biweekly updates to Residence Counsellor through one-on-one meetings
- Attend team meetings as required (e.g., mental wellness week committee meetings)
- Communicate with supervisor in a timely manner
- Monitor U of T email account daily for work-related emails
- Additional duties as assigned

QUALIFICATIONS:
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Presentation and group facilitation skills
- Strong organizational and problem solving skills
- Reliable and able to work independently
- Event coordination and volunteer management skills
- Experience with program development, delivery and evaluation
- Appreciation of diversity issues and respect for individual choices
- Strong working knowledge of Word, Excel and PowerPoint software
- Proficiency with social media platforms (esp. Twitter, Facebook, YouTube)
- Previous experience working or living in residence an asset
