Overview of the Certificate of Effective Healthcare Management

The University of Toronto has proudly partnered with the Mastercard Foundation to develop Africa's next generation of healthcare leaders. As part of this initiative, the Institute for Management & Innovation's (IMI) Executive Programs unit, IMIx, is offering a 9-month online Certificate of Effective Healthcare Management to enhance the management knowledge, leadership, and capabilities of managers working in the healthcare sector in Africa. Accepted applications will receive a full scholarship that covers all tuition costs associated with participating in this program, funded by the Mastercard Foundation.

Curriculum

This program includes different segments based on topic. Each segment has multiple sessions offered online via Zoom, one evening a week over a period of 9 months.

- Introduction to Healthcare Opportunities and Challenges
- Healthcare Governance, Ethics and Culture
- Healthcare Strategy and Critical Thinking Processes
- Risk Management in Healthcare
- Effective Leadership in Healthcare
- Healthcare Finance, Reporting and Scorecards
- Forensic Considerations for Healthcare
- Big Data Analysis for Healthcare

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this program, learners will be better prepared to:

- Evaluate the African healthcare sector and possibilities that exist for themselves and society.
- Use relevant knowledge and skills to enhance their careers and organizational performance in healthcare.
- Develop a network of healthcare contributors to seek support from in the future.
- Explore the global healthcare landscape.
- Apply best practice and lessons learned from real-world healthcare transformation experiences.

Speaker Series

In addition to weekly sessions, thought leaders in healthcare will be invited to speak about topics that are important to practicing healthcare professionals.

Who Should Attend

Aspiring managers and mid-level managers who are working in the healthcare industry and are alumni of, or currently working in, a healthcare organization (i.e., hospital, government health agency, or health unit/clinic) affiliated with one or more of our African Higher Education Health Collaborative partner universities and collaborating institutions. Check out the website for a complete list.

This program is brought to you by the University of Toronto together with the Mastercard Foundation. The selected participants will receive a full scholarship that covers all tuition costs associated with participating in this program.
