This position is posted in accordance with the CUPE 3902 Unit 3 Collective Agreement.

The Master of Forensic Accounting (MFAcc) program is a 8-course program offered at the graduate level, primarily on a distance education basis, using a problem-based learning model supplemented by web-based sessions. The Program currently has the following Sessional Lecturer positions available for the Winter term and invites applications from suitably qualified candidates who are not current University of Toronto students. No late applications can be considered.

Posting date: August 26, 2020

Closing date: September 4, 2020

Course title: IFA2906H - Business Valuation, Bankruptcy & Insolvency & Advanced Loss Quantification (Winter 2021)

of Positions: 2 (Instructors)

Class schedule: Online sessions will typically be scheduled on Tuesday from 19:00-22:00 EST/EDT

Dates of appointment: January 26, 2021 - April 6, 2021

Description of course:

Building upon the introduction to loss quantification in earlier courses, IFA 2906H will present additional material on: types of claims; overview of damages; overview of the litigation process; lost revenues; additional costs; inventory losses; expert reports; alleged wrongdoing; methodological and technical issues; personal injury; and business interruption insurance and insurance law.

IFA 2906H will be taught online in 8 once-per-week, interactive sessions, 3 hours in length. There will be an individual assignment and a group assignment plus an exam.

Position description:

Instructor

As the Instructor in the course, you will be responsible for liaising with the MFAcc Director and/or his nominee when required. New program development as per the requirements of the curriculum mapping. Providing feedback to the Director and/or his nominee, and TAs for each assignment. Providing a final marks list to the Director within two weeks of the final examination. Meeting with students on-line for at least 3 hours per week for 8 weeks using the Program's Adobe/Quercus system. Answering emails from students on a short-delay basis at other times during the week, as required. Providing feedback to students on assignments through the MFAcc Office within two weeks and in accordance with the standards set for the MFAcc Program. Consultation with the Director when appropriate.
Minimum qualifications: Preferred qualifications are either PhD in relevant discipline (completed) or for non University of Toronto graduate students, in progress, or relevant qualifications, professional designation or professional experience. We are seeking previous experience in teaching, teaching excellence, and mastery of subject area. Previous experience in teaching a similar course is highly desirable.

Salary: $15,500 for the course - divided between the instructors

Anticipated enrolment: 24

Minimum TA support: 48 hrs

Please submit an application and current Curriculum Vitae (including valid email address) to:

Julian Gaspini, Program Coordinator
MFACC Program Office, Innovation Complex, Room 2218
University of Toronto Mississauga
3359 Mississauga Road
Mississauga, ON L5L 1C6
julian.gaspini@utoronto.ca

No late applications can be considered. A valid email address is required, and applications may be submitted electronically to the email address above.

Only applicants who have been chosen for a position will be contacted.