FRENCH STUDIES IN THE CLASSROOM

If you are an aspiring student, the Department of Language Studies at the University of Toronto Mississauga is giving you an opportunity to experience lectures in the academic environment. You will be:

- Invited to a lecture of an existing course in your chosen language of
- Given a pre-course package (description of our programs, the course syllabus, and a sample of a written assignment, quiz, test, and take-home exercises)
- Able to fully participate in the class including asking questions of the instructor
- Invited to our Outreach events (see below)

FRE180H5F Introduction to French Studies I (Fall Semester 2018)
Location TBD
Choose a date (mid-semester):
    ______ Monday October 22th    ______ Monday November October 29th

FRE181H5S Introduction to French Studies II (Spring Semester 2018)
CC2130
Choose date (mid-semester):
    ______ Monday February 26th    ______ Monday March 5th

FRENCH STUDIES OUTREACH EVENTS

FRENCH TALENT SHOW (offered annually)
Come enjoy an evening of Francophone culture during the global event Semaine de la Francophonie. The show is organised by our French students union exécutives (EFUTM & LSAS). All performances are prepared and presented by the students registered in our programs. Instructors and Staff are also welcome to participate.

Prize: A participation to the «Pot Pourri Show», University of Toronto only francophone radio show: 11-1pm on Sundays

Interested in attending the show only? You are welcome to do so. You will be asked to act as a jury member by voting for your favorite performance of the night.

Thursday March 22, 2018, 5-7 p.m., Erindale Theatre
TRIP TO MONTREAL (Fall 2018)
A three day trip to the multicultural city of Montreal to immerse yourself in the French-Italian community.
You will visit a museum
You will hike the Parc du Mont-Royal Trail
You will order your favorite fresh groceries at Marché Jean Talon
You will order in French in one of Montreal’s French bistros
You will order in Italian in one of Montreal’s Italian restaurant

TRIP TO QUEBEC WINTER CARNIVAL (Winter 2019)
A three-day trip to the joys of winter in Quebec city is a dream come true!
Come visit the Plains of Abraham and be exposed to Quebec winter culture
You will toboggan in front of the Château Frontenac, overlooking the majesty of the icy Saint Laurent river and make your own icy maple syrup (la tire)
You will place your order in French in one of Vieux Quebec’s bistros.

For more information please contact:
Dr Caroline Lebrec, Faculty Liaison Outreach - French Studies,
Department of Language Studies, University of Toronto Mississauga
caroline.lebrec@utoronto.ca

or

Prof. Claude Lucette Evans, Undergraduate Coordinator - French Studies, Department of Language Studies, University of Toronto Mississauga
claude.evans@utoronto.ca