

Teresa Lobalsamo: Teresa Lobalsamo is Assistant Professor (Teaching Stream) and Undergraduate Coordinator of Italian Studies at the Department of Language Studies, University of Toronto Mississauga (UTM). She received her Ph.D. from the University of Toronto in Italian Studies in 2013. In addition to introductory Italian language courses, and in line with her research foci, Dr. Lobalsamo teaches an array of cinema, culture, and experiential learning courses, such as Mafia Movies, Italian Comedies, Cucina Italiana, Italian Theatre. Recent scholarly activities (articles and conference papers) centre on high impact practices in foreign language learning, cinema and pedagogy, teaching methodologies in large classes. Dr. Lobalsamo strives to create meaningful academic experiences outside of a traditional classroom setting: she supervises undergraduate grant-funded research projects, organizes internship placements and undergraduate colloquia, and takes students on local and international co-curricular trips (with the International Education Centre's UTM Abroad). She serves on several campus-wide committees and is also the American Association of Teachers of Italian (AATI) Regional Representative for Canada.
