

The Future of Professionalism

May 10, 2018

Leonard Brooks, Jr.,
FCPA, FCA,
B.Com, MBA

Len is a professor of business ethics and accounting at the Rotman School and the Institute for Management and Innovation at the University of Toronto.

Karen McCardle, CPA, CA

Karen is a Chartered Professional Accountant and director of professional issues and research support services at CPA Canada.

Stephen A. Zeff,
B.S., M.S., MBA, Ph.D

Stephen serves on the editorial board of 14 research journals, has served on the advisory council of the Financial Accounting Standards Board.

Sylvia Kingsmill,
B.A., LLB

Sylvia is a partner in the risk consulting practice at KPMG Canada, and its national data protection and privacy leader.

Robert Strachan, FCPA, FCMA, C. Dir.

Bob was the previous chair of the CPA Canada Board of Directors. He joined the board in January 2013 and has served as both vice chair (2013-2014) and chair (2014-2015).

Edward J. Waitzer, LLB, LLM

Edward was chair of Stikeman Elliott LLP from 1999 to 2006, and he remains a senior partner whose practice focuses on complex business transactions.

Michele Wood-Tweel, FCPA, FCA, CFP, TEP

Michele is vice-president, regulatory affairs at CPA Canada. She serves as secretariat to the CPA profession's public trust committee, which oversees the ethics standards and self-regulatory processes of the profession.

Chad Davis,
CPA, CMA, MBA

Chad is a partner at LiveCA LLP, Canada's largest virtual accredited CPA firm.

Blake Langill,
CPA, CA, MBA

Blake is a partner in Ernst & Young's Assurance Services practice, Blake is the Greater Toronto Area leader of Ernst & Young (EY)'s Mining & Metals industry group.

Elaine Lee,
CPA, CMA

Elaine is a senior manager with a professional CPA, CMA designation with over 15 years of progressive working experience; she is currently with the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario providing strategic advice to the chief administrative officer.

Andrew (Sandy)
Hilton,
FCPA, FCA, M.A.,
Ph.D.

Sandy is CPA Canada's vice-president, Pre-certification Education, providing strategic direction and operational oversight to the development of the CPA certification program, the CPA Advanced Certificate in Accounting and Finance (ACAF), and all related examinations.

Chris MacDonald,
M.A., Ph.D.

Chris teaches ethics and critical thinking at Ryerson University, where he is director of the Ted Rogers Leadership Centre. He is also a nonresident senior scholar at Duke University's Kenan Institute for Ethics.

Martin Martinoff, M.A.

Martin leads a foresight and innovation initiative on the future of the accountancy and finance profession for the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW), the UK's leading professional body.

Tricia O'Malley,
FCPA, FCA, B.Com

Tricia chaired the Canadian Accounting Standards Board (AcSB) from 1999 to 2001 and 2009 to 2010. She was a member of the International Accounting Standards Board from 2001 to 2007, before becoming its director of implementation activities until 2009.

Gordon Richardson, MBA, Ph.D.

Gordon is a professor of accounting and the former editor of Contemporary Accounting Research (2001-2006), one of the top five academic accounting journals in the world.