

CINEMA STUDIES (HBA)

Department of Visual Studies

Cinema Studies delves into the history and theory of cinema and related moving image media. Developed by award-winning faculty, this new Major explores major world cinemas, genres, and auteurs. Its unique philosophical and interdisciplinary perspective highlights such issues as the impact of film on identity—both individual and collective—and relationships between aesthetics and politics.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR TIME AT UTM!

We want to help you maximize your university experience, so we've pulled together information and interesting suggestions to get you started, although there are many more! As you review the chart on the inside pages, note that many of the suggestions need not be restricted to the year they are mentioned. In fact, activities such as joining an academic society, engaging with faculty and seeking opportunities to gain experience should occur in each year of your study at UTM. Read through the chart and create your own plan using My Program Plan found at www.utm.utoronto.ca/program-plans

FUTURE STUDENTS

Admission to UTM

All program areas require an Ontario Secondary School Diploma, or equivalent, with six Grade 12 U/M courses, or equivalent, including English. The admission average is calculated with English plus the next best five courses. The approximate average required for admission is mid- to high-70s. More information is available at utm.utoronto.ca/viewbook.

NOTE: During the application process, applicants will select the Cinema Studies admissions category but will not officially be admitted to a formal program of study (Specialist, Major, and/or Minor) until after first year.

Sneak Peek

Examine East Asian cinema from the 1960s to the present, including films from Hong Kong, Taiwan, China, Japan, and Korea. Explore the aesthetic analysis of short and feature-length films, and the examination of film waves, genres, film festivals, and interconnected film industries in CIN207H5.

Who are Michael Haneke (Austria), Olivier Assayas (France), and Hou Hsiao-Hsien (Taiwan)? CIN303H5 is devoted to these three major international filmmakers. Explore their differences and similarities in how they make international films.
