The Education Studies minor is for students interested in a variety of careers that involve educating and training others. Students will develop an understanding of the format and the rationale for particular instructional strategies, teaching methodologies, andragogy and pedagogy. The minor will help students advance skills in teaching, corporate training, e-learning, second language instruction and other related areas. Students will immerse themselves in courses related to equity and diversity; communication and conflict resolution; child, adolescent, and adult development; learning design, experiential learning and education within a global context. Through the Minor, they will develop leadership skills as they participate in field placements, community engagement activities, training and research opportunities and case studies; and will come to understand the importance of inclusivity/diversity both within an instructional framework and the community.

We want to help you maximize your university experience, so we’ve pulled together information and interesting suggestions to get you started. As you review the chart on the inside pages, note that many of the suggestions need not be restricted to the year they are mentioned. In fact, activities such as joining an academic society, engaging with faculty and seeking opportunities to gain experience should occur in each year of your study at UTM. Read through the chart and create your own plan using My Program Plan found at www.utm.utoronto.ca/program-plans

Consult the Academic Calendar for greater detail on course requirements, program notes and degree requirements.

Plan your Academics

1st Year
- Enrol in EDS100HS.
- Choose a program of study (Subject RPSG) once you complete 4.0 credits. Use the Degree Explorer and the Academic Calendar to plan your degree.
- Develop foundational academic skills and strategies by enrolling in a stmONE course. Build community and gain academic support through LAUNCH. Join a RGASC Peer Facilitated Study Group.

2nd Year
- Enrol in courses EDS200HS*, EDS210HS and EDS220HS.
- Throughout your undergraduate degree:
  - use the Degree Explorer to ensure you complete your degree and program requirements.
  - see the Office of the Registrar and the Education Studies Program Coordinator.

Build Skills

- Use the Co-Curricular Record (CCR). Search for opportunities beyond the classroom, and keep track of your accomplishments.
- Attend the Get Hired Fair through the Career Centre (CC) to learn about on- and off-campus work and volunteer opportunities.
- Attend the Experiential Education Fair.

Build a Network

- Networking simply means talking to people and developing relationships with them. Start by joining the Teaching and Education Studies Association (TESA). Follow them on Facebook @tesautm.
- Visit the UTM Library Reference Desk.

Build a Global Mindset

- Attend events held by the International Education Centre (IEC), whether you are an international or domestic student. Explore your culture and other cultures through weekly/regular conversations, Language Conversation Circles, debates, and activities to enhance your global and intercultural mindset.
- Learn about a future UTM Abroad Experience through the IEC. This includes: travel with a UTM faculty member and a group of peers to locations like Portugal and China to expand your learning outside the classroom by immersing yourself in local education systems and connecting with local educators.

Plan for your future

- Attend the Program Selection & Career Options workshop offered by the Office of the Registrar and the CC.
- Check out Careers by Major at the CC to see potential career options.
- Explore careers through the CC’s Job Shadowing Program.
- Considering further education? Attend the CC’s Graduate & Professional Schools Fair. Talk to professors – they are potential mentors and references.

3rd Year
- Enrol in EDS300HS and EDS310HS. Attain 0.5 or 1.0 credits in experiential learning credits such as, EDS320HS, EDS377HS or EDS388HS. Speak to the Education Studies Program Coordinator about internship courses in other subject areas.
- Consider applying for the Research Opportunity Program (ROP) course EDS399HS. Visit the EU website for ROP Course Prerequisites. Attend the RGASC’s P.A.R.T. to enhance your research skills.
- Explore your interests. Apply to become a Peer Mentor with Accessibility Services. Peer Mentors are also eligible to take the experiential learning course, EDS377HS. Apply in advance, talk to your Education Studies Academic Advisor in March of second year for more details.

4th or Final Year
- Enrol in courses EDS200HS* and EDS210HS and EDS220HS.
- Throughout your undergraduate degree:
  - use the Degree Explorer to ensure you complete your degree and program requirements.
  - see the Office of the Registrar and the Education Studies Program Coordinator.

4th Year
- Attain 0.5 or 1.0 credits in EDS250HS, EDS275HS, EDS285HS, EDS295HS, or EDS345HS. Speak to the Education Studies Program Coordinator for help with selecting appropriate courses.
- Log on to ACORN and request graduation.

Skills are transferable to any job regardless of where you develop them. Need to strengthen your presentation skills? Consider taking EDS329HS which allows you to earn a course credit in addition to a placement opportunity as a RGASC Facilitated Study Group Leader.

Establish a professional presence on social media (e.g., LinkedIn).
- Check out workshops and events hosted by the Department of Language Studies. Visit their News & Events page.

Earn credits overseas! Apply to study for a summer, term or year at one of 140+ universities. Speak to the IEC for details about Course Based Exchange, funding and travel safety.

EDS388HS also offers opportunities to complete the internship abroad. Talk with your Education Studies Program Coordinator for more details.

What's your next step after undergrad?
- Attend workshops that will help you prepare for teacher’s college or professional learning seminars to build new skills in teaching and leadership. Seek opportunities for paid work with the EDS Summer Academy programs.

Market your skills to employers. Get your resume critiqued at the CC. Attend the CC workshop. Now That I’m Graduating What’s Next?
- Write a strong application for further education. Attend the CC’s Mastering the Personal Statement workshop.
- Ready to transition from the classroom to the workplace? Check out the Recent Graduate Opportunities Program.

Skills developed in Education Studies

To be competitive in the job market, it is essential that you can explain your skills to an employer. Visit the Career Centre to learn how to articulate and market the following skills:

Communication: work cooperatively with others; understand group dynamics; present information effectively; write clearly; negotiate with others; and mediate conflict.

Instructing: present lessons in a comprehensive manner; provide one-to-one help; explain concepts clearly; assess proficiencies and recommend alternative strategies for learning.

Analytical: identify key issues in decision-making or problem solving; weigh alternatives and identify solutions; formulate questions relevant to clarifying a particular problem, topic, or issue; and research topics and present findings to groups.

Mentoring & Organizational: supervise students in class and encourage learning; organize materials during class planning; and manage time effectively.

Admission to UTM

All program areas require an Ontario Secondary School Diploma, or equivalent, with six Grade 12 U/M courses, or equivalent, including English. The admission average is calculated with English plus the next best five courses. The approximate average required for admission is mid- to high-70s. More information is available at utm.utoronto.ca/viewbook.

NOTE: During the application process, applicants will select the Humanities admissions category, but will not officially be admitted to a formal program of study (Specialist, Major, and/or Minor) until after first year.

Sneak Peek

What are the fundamental skills involved in designing learning opportunities? Take EDS300H5 to study and practice these skills in the field. What common challenges do undergraduate students encounter in their first year of university? Find out in EDS377H5 where you will examine adult and student development theories, models of student engagement and more!

Experiential learning is embedded within the program’s courses and enables students to implement reflective practice based upon inquiry-based research, data gathering and assessment. Those interested in pursuing a career in teaching may wish to apply to a consecutive initial teaching program, an HR certification program, an ESL and or Adult Ed program or a Master’s program in education upon completion of their undergraduate degree.
