CRIMINOLOGY, LAW & SOCIETY (HBA)

Department of Sociology

Criminology, law & society provides a broad foundation in knowledge of law, crime and criminal justice. It is clearly connected to the legal profession, policing, parole and offers an excellent background for working in government and public policy on criminal behaviour.

Our teaching and research expertise covers diverse topics central to understanding and explaining law, crime and criminal justice. Students develop critical thinking, writing and numeracy skills and learn how to analyze, understand and address real life issues, all in preparation for further education and employment.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR TIME AT UTM!

We want to help you maximize your university experience, so we've pulled together information and interesting suggestions to get you started, although there are many more! As you review the chart on the inside pages, note that many of the suggestions need not be restricted to the year they are mentioned. In fact, activities such as joining an academic society, engaging with faculty and seeking opportunities to gain experience can occur in each year of your study at UTM. Read through the chart and create your own plan using My Program Plan found at www.utm.utoronto.ca/program-plans

MAJOR Program Plan

1st YEAR

- Enroll in SOC100H5 and SOC109H5, ideally take them consecutively in the fall (SOC100H5) and winter (SOC109H5).
- Refer to the Department Academic Advising Notice periodically.
- Choose a program of study (Subject POS) once you complete 4.0 credits (6.0 credits for the Criminology, Law & Society Specialist program). Use the Degree Explorer and the Academic Calendar to plan your degree.
- Develop foundational academic skills and strategies by enrolling in a UTMONE course. Build community and gain academic support through LAUNCH. Use the RGASC for writing help and join one of their Peer Facilitated Study Groups.

2nd YEAR

- Enroll in SOC205H5, SOC221H5 and SOC222H5 to ensure you have the prerequisites for 300- and 400-level courses. Interested in an intensive program of study? Submit a Criminology, Law & Society Specialist Subject POS request after completion of 8.0 credits.
- Throughout your undergraduate degree:
  - use the Degree Explorer to ensure you complete your degree and program requirements.
  - contact the Office of the Registrar and the Sociology Academic Counsellor if you have any questions.
- Use the Co-Curricular Record (CCR). Search for opportunities beyond the classroom, and keep track of your accomplishments.
- Attend the Get Experience Fair through the CC to learn about on- and off-campus opportunities.

3rd YEAR

- Networking simply means talking to people and developing relationships with them. Start by joining the UTM Sociology and Criminology Society (SCS) and attend their Meet Your Prof event. Follow the Sociology department on twitter @UTM sóc.
- Visit the UTM Library Reference Desk and ask about the Sociology Liaison Librarian.
- Attend events held by the International Education Centre (IEC), whether you are an international or domestic student. Explore your culture and other cultures through workshops, Language Conversation Circles, debates, and activities to enhance your global and intercultural mindset.
- Take an in-depth look at why genocides occur in SOC206H5 and discover the interdisciplinary field of Indigenous Studies in SOC222H5.
- Check out Peel Urbanscapes featured by the Peel Social Lab.
- Explore careers through the CC’s Job Shadowing Program.
- Considering further education? Attend the CC’s Further Education Showcase. Talk to professors – they are potential mentors and may write your reference letter for further education.

4th OR FINAL YEAR

- Personalize your degree. Investigate emotional dynamics in law and justice in SOC424H5. Explore how disability functions as a basis for exclusion from social, legal, and economic institutions in SOC425H5. Discover how surveillance has led to a rise in prisons and other state-sponsored punishment in SOC403H5.
- Log on to ACORN and request graduation.

FUTURE STUDENTS

Admission to UTM

All program areas require an Ontario Secondary School Diploma, or equivalent, with six Grade 12 U/M courses, or equivalent, including English. The admission average is calculated with English plus the next best five courses. The approximate average required for admission is mid- to high-70s. More information is available at utm.utoronto.ca/viewbook.

NOTE: During the application process, applicants will select Social Sciences admissions category, but will not officially be admitted to a formal program of study (Specialist, Major, and/or Minor) until after first year.

Sneak Peek

Discover our Indigenous Studies offerings: SOC228H5 Introduction to Indigenous Studies; SOC302H5 Indigenous-Canada Relations; SOC348H5 Indigenous Rights, Resistance, and Resurgence; SOC358H5 Indigenous People: Legal Orders and Law; SOC388H5 Race and Indigeneity; SOC415H5 Senior Seminar in Indigenous Studies; and SOC455H5 Comparative Indigenous Politics.

Our department spearheads the Peel Social Lab (PSL): a lab dedicated to gathering, storing, analyzing and sharing data on the UTM and broader Peel region, which fosters experiential learning opportunities for students. By incorporating data gathering efforts into undergraduate sociology classes, the PSL gives students hands-on experience in research design and analysis conducted on Peel region society. Such work provides students with valuable research skills, while helping students establish contacts within the wider Peel region.
