Choose a major in English at UTM and you’ll be taught by internationally renowned critics, creative writers, and scholars. You’ll get a grounding in some of the most famous works ever written in English - from Shakespeare’s The Tempest to Toni Morrison’s Beloved. You’ll also encounter the new and the unexpected; UTM English offers courses about video games, contemporary Indigenous writers, and medieval world literatures. A degree in English will give you exceptional skills as a writer, researcher, critical thinker and communicator, which will open up a wide range of careers. Many English graduates end up as lawyers, professional writers, and teachers, but they also become fashion entrepreneurs, investment advisors, lab technicians, and even . . . Prime Minister (Justin Trudeau? He has a BA in Literature). UTM English students are especially well-positioned for admission to advanced degrees in the Humanities, Law, Medicine, and Business, and by combining a major in a Science or Social Science with one in English you’ll give yourself an edge in any field.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR TIME AT UTM!

We want to help you maximize your university experience, so we’ve pulled together information and interesting suggestions to get you started, although there are many more! As you review the chart on the inside pages, note that many of the suggestions need not be restricted to the year they are mentioned. In fact, activities such as joining an academic society, engaging with faculty and seeking opportunities to gain experience should occur in each year of your study at UTM. Read through the chart and create your own plan using My Program Plan found at www.utm.utoronto.ca/program-plans

FUTURE STUDENTS

Admission to UTM

All program areas require an Ontario Secondary School Diploma, or equivalent, with six Grade 12 U/M courses, or equivalent, including English. The admission average is calculated with English plus the next best five courses. The approx. average required for admission is mid- to high-70s. More information is available at utm.utoronto.ca/viewbook.

NOTE: During the application process, applicants will select the Humanities admissions category, but will not officially be admitted to a formal program of study (Specialist, Major, and/or Minor) until after first year.

Sneak Peek

Mississauga and Toronto are among the world’s most diverse and multicultural cities. Explore issues such as diasporas, identity, nationality, place, origin, and the multicultural experience of GTA writers in ENG271H5. How did people fall in love in the Renaissance? Find out in ENG301H5.

Perceptive and attentive reading and clear and persuasive writing are key to the craft of literary criticism. Our programs are designed to make students better critics; but these skills are equally crucial in all areas of research, business, and professional activity, and are therefore of lasting value both within and beyond the university.
