UTMM
First Year Orientation
September 2020
Why UTMM?

Commence and Management students at UTMM enjoy a combination of experiences unique in Canada. Indeed, UTMM is the sum of its parts and we do things a little differently. Take your studies. You graduate with extra recognition and work experience after your four years. Such compelling success are a direct result of how we operate day-to-day.

The on-campus culture is one of friendly professionalism, encouraging collaboration and individual achievement. Which springs from the relationships you enjoy with your instructors: part guru, part consultant, part colleague, they include tenured research faculty and seasoned industry professionals. UTMM is Credentials, Community and Connection. And it's all yours.

"In the face of continued economic and political uncertainty, will the stock market continue to soar to new heights?"

Meet Ed Rieckelman
A BRIEF BACKGROUND

Ed Rieckelman is a seasoned investment professional. Over the course of his 20-year career as a private equity investor, Ed made investments in over 20 private companies and was a director of nine companies.

His private equity investments have resulted in a return on invested capital in excess of 5x. Ed incorporates both academic and financial theories along with Wall Street valuation and acquisition tactics in his weekly UTMM lectures.
